

FALL EDITION 2022

Presidents Message

Greetings to all,

It's great to have our bookstore open again! The library staff has been helping with many of our projects to streamline efforts to keep our store stocked and advertised. A new bookmobile is on the horizon, and everyone is excited and looking forward to seeing it. We are hoping it will arrive before the end of this year.

Our Spring Clean-up and Summer sales were both a success. Our Christmas sale is Dec. 2-3. We hope to see you there!

Many new members have joined us and we are looking forward to seeing many more new faces. Phil Bence has been doing a terrific job selling books for us in his Amazon store. It was a huge blessing during Covid when everything was closed, a big thank you to Phil. If you would like to see what is available in the Amazon store go to www.amazon.com/shops/philbence. Also check out our Face Book page!

Best to you all,

Donna Bailey,
FOL Co-President

Fall is upon us and while we don't want to forget all the wonderful things that happened this summer, we won't be sad to say goodbye to the heat we experienced!

Summer was a busy time for the Friends of the Library. After the Spring-Cleaning Sale, we jumped right into planning the big Summer Book Sale, which was a success! Our next book sale will be held on December 2nd from 9:00-3:00 and 3rd from 10:00-2:00. More information will be published as it gets closer. In addition, the library will be hosting the Electronic Rock Orchestra, who will perform in the library lobby on December 3rd during the book sale. More information will be forthcoming on this event.

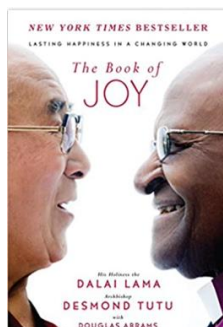

YOU'RE INVITED!

Sept. 21: "The Book of Joy, Lasting Happiness in a Changing World" by Dalai Lama

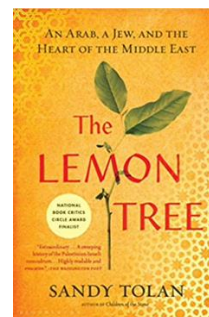

Oct. 19: "The Lemon Tree: An Arab, a Jew and the Heart of the Middle East" by Sandy Tolan
